BACHELOR OF ARABIC LANGUAGE (HONOURS)

PROGRAMME BACKGROUND
Bachelor of Arabic Language (Honours) is designed for the purpose of shaping, developing and producing graduates who are capable of holistically reasoning the knowledge of Turath, as the mastery of its application today requires knowledge in Arabic language and certain skills. The programme was developed with the aim of introducing a curriculum design that combines basic methods in Arabic language and real applications in language skills (listening, reading, speaking and writing) with the current and future use based on reality, needs, changes and current demands as well as future challenges. The programme also introduces a number of experiential-based modules or courses such as Academic Training, to give graduates the opportunity to get the feeling and experience the working environment before being in the job market in the future. In addition, other courses do include case studies to enable students to evaluate and apply appropriate methods in solving any problems.
